First Thursdays

Monthly Webinars on
Eco-mysticism & Earth Activism

There is a river flowing now very fast. It is so great and swift that there are those who will be afraid.... The elders say we must LET GO OF THE SHORE, push off into the middle of the river, keep our eyes open, and our heads above the water..... See who is in there with YOU - and celebrate. The time of the LONE WOLF is over. Gather yourselves! Banish the word 'struggle' from your attitude and your vocabulary. All that we do now must be done in a sacred manner and in celebration.....

Mark Steiner

Shirley Pevarnik

Penny Andrews

We welcome three special guests to get the conversation going:

As co-founder and director of Cultivating Connections, a non-profit in Louisville, KY, Mark Steiner has facilitated classes, workshops, ceremonies, and large community events for nurturing and celebrating a sense of connection with each other and our world. Recently, Mark has approached his work with a renewed energy and spirit. We have asked Mark to share what has inspired him to reinvent his work..

Once a student of Thomas Berry,, Shirley Pevarnik's social and environmental activism has inspired her to bring people together in person and online to increase their knowledge and commitment to our planet and beyond. Her discussion groups have addressed issues such as Thomas Berry and the Journey of the Universe, the Ecozoic Age, Joanna Macy's Active Hope, the New Story, Climate Change, and most recently, Journey of the Universe for the DeepTime Network. What is her secret for keeping people engaged?

Penny Andrews, is a lifelong environmental activist who is constantly connecting people to new ideas, revelations, and body of thought that evolve out of the eco-spiritual movement. A student of the New Cosmology, the Work That Reconnects, and Creation Spirituality, she will be sharing a reading by one of her teachers that has ignited her hope for our shared future.. Penny is a co-host for Creation In Crisis, sharing leaders and their latest revelations with the Creation Spirituality community.
