

'Fire, Water, Earth, Air: The Poetic Universe'

Lectio Poetica practices interweaving poetry and Deep Time

3 x 1hr Online Sessions over 3 weeks, September 2022

3 x Women Poets - Pattiann Rogers, Linda Hogan, and Mary Oliver

Acknowledgement: Painting - 'Endangered Native Species' by P. Harney. Used with permission.

'Poets and artists can help restore a sense of rapport with the natural world. It is this renewed sense of reciprocity with nature, in all of its complexity and remarkable beauty, that can help provide the psychic and spiritual energies necessary for the work ahead'.

Thomas Berry, The Sacred Universe, p.48

An invitation to join with other cosmic creatives - artists, poets, writers, ecospiritual activists, stargazers, earth lovers - in an immersive online experience together where the practice of Lectio

Poetica, listening deeply to a selection of poems by three women poets, initiates creative emergence. The poets are Pattiann Rogers, Linda Hogan and Mary Oliver.

Bring your journal and pencils.

When - three online sessions where participants from different timezones will meet in the same online sessions

Sept. 15, 22, 29 EST 5.30pm-6.45 pm

Sept. 15, 22, 29 PT 2.30pm-3.45 pm

Sept. 16, 23, 30 AEST, 7.30am-8.45 am

Facilitator and additional information: Judith Keller, Southport, Australia. kellsull@ozemail.com.au

Judith has a background in spirituality and the arts. She has recently completed her Certificate in Deep Time Leadership with the Deep Time Network. She is a member of the Sisters of Earth, a guide in her Regional Botanic Gardens, § a member of ANSD and of ARROC. Judith teaches courses on eco mindfulness practices and on the poetry of deep time in various local organisations with which she is connected. Judith also facilitates a weekly online space for ecospiritual activists for contemplating Earth.

No cost involved. You are welcome to attend one session or all there sessions. If you attend one session only it is recommended it be the first session.

Please register by emailing Judith by September 10, 2022.