

WALKING AND WANDERING: AN ECOSPIRITUAL JOURNEY

THURSDAY, MAY 18 AT 1:00 PM

In her presentation “Walking and Wandering: An EcoSpiritual Journey,” artist Imogene Drummond shares her three-month pre-pandemic “walkabout” in Scotland and Spain. Fascinated by the convergence of sea, sky, and soil, she focused on the Hebridian Isles in Scotland and the Catalonian countryside and coast of Spain. Alluring images illuminate her journey and the process of wandering, or what cultural historian Rebecca Solnit calls “getting lost.” Solnit clarifies that “to be lost is to be fully present.”

THIS IS A ZOOM PRESENTATION. PRESENTATION WILL BE SHARED AGAIN AT 7 PM
